The Toronto Professional Fire Fighters Association and Santa Claus to visit St. Joseph's Annual Paediatric Christmas Party

TORONTO – Tuesday, December 21 - Santa Claus, along with Cheri Di Novo, MPP for Parkdale-High Park and his friends at the Toronto Professional Fire Fighters Association (TPFFA) are making a special visit to the Wendy Yarranton Paediatric Christmas Party at St. Joseph's Health Centre! For the last several years, the TPFFA have assisted St. Joseph's with bringing the holiday spirit and an early Christmas to the many children and families who attend this annual celebration.

In addition to their generous donation of gifts for the party, the TPFFA will also be presenting a donation to go towards St. Joseph's Health Centre's Child Life Fund, supporting care for our paediatric patients.

WHAT: The Wendy Yarranton Paediatric Christmas Party

WHEN: Tuesday, December 21, 2010

WHERE: St. Joseph's Health Centre - Cafeteria

WHO: Photo/filming/interview opportunities with guests

TIME: 6:30 p.m. - Santa arrives. Media will gather in the Health Centre's Main Entrance (Melnyk Pavilion – accessed from The Queensway) and a Corporate Communications Associate will escort you to the party.

St. Joseph's Health Centre is located at 30 The Queensway. Media can park in the hospital's parking garage, located on the corner of Sunnyside Ave. and The Queensway.
